

Information clause on the collection of personal data other than from the data subject

Pursuant to Article 14(1), (2) and (5)(b) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (OJ L 119, 2016, p. 1, as amended, hereinafter also the "GDPR"), since some of the personal data processed in connection with the provision and operation of the Senuto.com application is obtained other than from the data subject, we hereby inform you that:

1. The controller of the personal data is Senuto spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością (limited liability company) with its registered office in Warsaw at ul. Dominikańska 13, 02-738 Warszawa, Poland, entered in the register of entrepreneurs kept by the District Court for the Capital City of Warsaw in Warsaw, 13th Commercial Division of the National Court Register, under KRS number 0000464809, NIP (tax identification number): 9512367837, REGON (statistical number): 14670364200000, share capital PLN 9,678,200.00, paid up in full (hereinafter also the "Controller").
2. The Controller can be contacted by e-mail at dane@senuto.com or in writing at the Controller's registered office address.
3. The Controller processes personal data for the purposes necessary to ensure the proper functioning of the Senuto.com application and to provide the users of this application with a website optimisation service, as well as for the purposes of establishing and defending claims related to the operation of the Senuto.com application, arising from the legitimate interests pursued by the Controller (under Article 6(1)(f) GDPR).
4. The Controller obtains personal data from persons who have access to the Senuto.com application (users) and who, while using their account in this application, have typed in and entered personal data into one of the modules or tools forming part of the Senuto.com application. The personal data may also have been obtained by the Controller from publicly available sources, i.e. from publicly available websites used by the Controller in connection with the provision and operation of the Senuto.com application.
5. The Controller has received or obtained, or may receive or obtain, in particular (but not limited to) the following categories of your personal data: first name, surname, pseudonym, residential address, business address, telephone number, NIP (tax identification number), date of birth, biographical data.

6. The personal data may be disclosed to entities authorised to receive it under the law, as well as to users of the Senuto.com application (users) who, while using this application, will be able to search for personal data by typing it in and entering it into one of the modules or tools forming part of the Senuto.com application. The recipients of the personal data may also include entities cooperating with the Controller in respect of services provided to the Controller and support of its ongoing business processes, in particular entities providing services such as IT services, legal services, etc.
7. The data will be stored for the following period: until the legitimate interests pursued by the Controller cease to exist or until an objection to the processing of personal data is raised, in cases where such an objection should be taken into account in accordance with the law.
8. You have the right to request access to your personal data, its rectification, erasure or restriction of processing, as well as the right to object to the processing of the data.
9. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office (Prezes Urzędu Ochrony Danych Osobowych), ul. Moniuszki 1A, 00-014 Warszawa, Poland.
10. The data may be transferred to a third country outside the European Economic Area under Article 45 GDPR, i.e. where the European Commission has decided that the third country, a territory or one or more specified sectors within that third country ensure an adequate level of protection. The Controller informs that, in the absence of a decision of the European Commission on the adequacy of the level of personal data protection with regard to a given third country, in order to adequately safeguard personal data in relations with entities established in such a third country, the Controller will use the standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission referred to in Article 46(2) GDPR and will assess the planned transfer of personal data in terms of ensuring compliance with the law.
